Mum of murdered teen:

'THERE ARE DAYS WHEN IT IS STILL THE FIRST THING ON MY MIND'

• Samantha Shrewsbury and partner Dean Jones are shown Jayden's memorial garden for the first time

THE mum of murdered pregnant teenager Jayden Parkinson says she still struggles to get out of bed each day but hopes a new memorial garden opened on Friday will help her come to terms with her daughter's death.

Samantha Shrewsbury, 47, was blindfolded and led to the new garden in Foxhall Road to remember her 17-year-old daughter – who was killed by her ex-boyfriend in 2013.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The Didcot mum fought back tears and was left speechless as she was led around the garden, which highlighted Jayden's favourite colour, purple.

Ms Shrewsbury said: "I still grieve and struggle to get out of bed every day. There are days when it is still the first thing on my mind.

"I hope the garden will help me and the community come to terms with it all."

Crime in Oxfordshire falling, figures reveal

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

CRIME reported in Oxfordshire has fallen by an average of more than six per cent, latest figures published by Thames Valley Police on Monday have revealed.

Each of the county's five policing areas – Oxford, Vale of White Horse, South Oxfordshire, West Oxfordshire and Cherwell - recorded drops in crime between April 2014 and March this year, averaging out at 6.48 per cent.

It equates to 32,799 crimes in Oxfordshire, compared to 35,237 for the previous 12 months from 2013 to 2014.

Most of the policing areas saw significant drops in burglaries and robberies, as well as in vehicle theft.

However there was a sharp increase in the number of sexual offences reported, as victims gain the confidence to come forward about historic incidents in the wake of national scandals involving high profile names.

Francis Habgood, chief constable of Thames Valley police, said: "Crime in the Thames Valley continues to fall and victim satisfaction remains high.

"The reduction for robbery, burglary and vehicle theft is particularly significant – this is testament to the officers, staff and volunteers who, with the support of members of the public and partners, worked so hard to achieve this.

"The greater reporting of sexual offences is encouraging and we will continue to safeguard and protect victims of these crimes and thoroughly investigate each case."

Across the Thames Valley, the total number of crimes fell from 127,408 in 2013/14 to 121,208 in the latest figures, with 5,000 fewer victims.

Anthony Stansfeld, police and crime commissioner for Thames Valley, said: "I want to thank all the Thames Valley police officers, staff and volunteers for their continued hard work.

"Crime is now at a 25 year low and household burglary at a 41 year low.

"The force is already committed to the challenges of delivering policing to all communities, and is tackling new emerging trends such as cyber crime, exploitation and slavery."

Oxford sees domestic abuse rise

INCIDENTS of domestic abuse have also risen in many areas across the county, particularly so in Oxford.

There was an 18 per cent increase in the number of crimes recorded by police between April 2014 and March 2015 – equating to 796 incidents compared to 677.

But Christian Bunt, Local Policing Area (LPA) commander for Oxford, believes this is because more people are coming forward to report such crimes.

He said: "My personal opinion is that domestic abuse is very under-reported, it's very personal, so the fact there's increased reporting is a good sign.

"It shows we're asking the right questions and we're getting disclosures from victims.

"We used to get a lot of no's, the victims just weren't talking to us, but now more people are disclosing which to me says they have more confidence."

In the county's other policing areas, Cherwell, South Oxfordshire and West Oxfordshire also saw rises in domestic abuse crime – up nine per cent, five per cent and six per cent respectively.

Only the Vale of White Horse saw a reduction, with incidents dropping by five per cent.

Two-thirds increase in sexual offence reports

WHILE crime is falling across the county, all five policing areas saw the numbers of sexual offences reported increase by between 18 and 58 per cent.

All but the Vale of White Horse saw the number of rapes reported increase by more than 69 per cent, with South Oxfordshire's figures more than doubling from 17 to 37.

Across the county, the number of rapes reported to police between April 2014 and March 2015 rose from 183 to 305.

But while the numbers were increasing, the Local Policing Area (LPA) commanders shared the view that this showed more people were feeling confident enough to come forward and report incidents, sometimes years later.

Kath Lowe, LPA commander for West Oxfordshire and Cherwell, said: "High profile national cases have made people see that police will take you seriously.

"So I think it's an increase in confidence, which is really good news."

Jim O'Ryan, acting LPA commander for South Oxfordshire and Vale of White Horse, added: "Whilst we don't want these offences to take place in the first place, we encourage people who have been victims to let us know."

Star chef joins fight to stop hospital kitchens closing

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

CELEBRITY chef Raymond Blanc OBE has joined a campaign trying to stop the kitchens at Didcot Community Hospital from closing in favour of cost cutting ready meals.

The Michelin star master chef spoke out on Friday backing protestors fighting for a U-turn from the plans to abandon fresh cooked meals for a 'cook chill' policy.

Didcot's hospital, in Wantage Road, is one of five across Oxfordshire which could see its kitchens close – potentially from June – in favour of preparing food off site.

Blanc, who owns Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons in Great Milton, signed his name on an open letter to the chief executive of Oxford Health NHS trust to Sir Stuart Bell CBE sent on Friday.

Andy Jones, chairman of the Hospital Caterers Association, said: "It is great to have Raymond on board but I think what it shows is we are all people who are passionate about food and want to make sure patients are giving the best food they can get."

A petition spearheaded by Liberal Democrat parliamentary candidate for Didcot and Wantage Alex Meredith, and Wantage Lib Dem councillor Jenny Hannaby, has collected over 335 signatures in the last few weeks.

Cllr Hannaby said: "I am extremely pleased that we have such eminent people in the food world come on board.

"Kitchen staff can know the needs of the patients and most importantly, they are the ones that keep the patients healthy and help them stay healthy."

Mr Meredith added: "It's great news and nice to see that a high level of chef is getting involved in our petition."

The 'cook chill' policy is already working in place at the trusts' community hospitals in Abingdon, Bicester, Oxford and Henley.

Oxford Health stated their March survey of patients who are part of the 'cold chill' kitchens found that 90 per cent of patients rated the food as good or excellent.

In a statement they said: "Meals will all be prepared offsite to recognised safety standards, which is a safer method for preparing food across a large organisation and is therefore cost-effective."

Oxford Health also confirmed they had received the letter – which was also signed by doctors, patients, businesses, hospital cooks, public health advisors and local councillors.

The letter claims kitchen closures could lead to harming patients by making them reliant on poor quality processed meals, preventing them from cooking meals from scratch, and would make it impossible for the Trust to buy fresh food from local suppliers.

If approved the policy could be rolled out to hospitals in Wantage, Wallingford, Witney and Chipping Norton as well as Didcot.

Oxford Health previously told the Guardian staff are discussing the plans internally.

New memorial garden unveiled in Jayden's memory

• From front page

Ben Blakeley, 23, of Christchurch Road, Reading, was found guilty of strangling Jayden and burying her body in his uncle's grave in the cemetery of Didcot's All Saints Church – nearby to Jayden's memorial garden.

Blakeley was jailed for a minimum of 20 years last July.

The garden was designed and built on donated land by Oxford-based Aspire.

Jayden's school friend Bethany Ray, 18, said: "It is absolutely amazing, it's lush, so much better than anything I could have imagined."

She added: "Time does not heal everything but it does make it easier."

Founding member of the band Supergrass, Mick Quinn, officially opened the garden alongside Jayden's friends and family at 11.30am.

Aspire's head gardener, Gez Porter, who designed the garden, said: "Her favourite colour was purple so we designed it to incorporate the colour to provide floral reminders of her memory.

"The garden will look beautiful in the summer when it is in full bloom."

A plaque was also unveiled for Jayden which reads: "Precious moments from the start cherished forever in our hearts."

Mrs Shrewsbury said: "I have not got any words. I can never imagine it would have looked anything like this, I hope this will be a place of sincerity for the community."

Aspire's chief operating officer, Ian Adshead, said: "The family wanted an all-year round garden to reflect the vibrancy of her life, Jayden was very interested in gardening.

"We felt it had to be restful, so people could remember in a more peaceful way."

Over budget

DIDCOT: Maintenance on allotments and cemeteries managed by the Didcot Town Council has gone grossly over budget, figures have revealed.

The maintenance and expenditure for allotments in Didcot Town Council were over budget by 71.7 per cent and 65.6 per cent respectively over 2014 to 2015.

Cemetery maintenance, which included the expenditure, was also 83.3 per cent over its budget.

They were revealed at a finance and general purposes committee meeting on Monday.

Free entry

DIDCOT: Railway centre will be free of charge to all Didcot residents this Sunday.

Unpaid entrance will be granted to anyone who provides evidence that they live at an OX11 postcode.

Kids activities

DIDCOT: Families with children under five are invited to attend an afternoon activities session at South Didcot Children's Centre in Hilary Drive on Tuesday.

Children are invited to take part in activities such as messy play and storytelling whilst parents are invited to information meetings concerning their children's welfare and employment opportunities.

The centre is run by Action for Children. Call 01235 511444 for more information.

New Aldi store causes frustrations for Didcot

DIDCOT residents have voiced their frustrations at the traffic congestion in the town following the opening of a new Aldi store on Broadway.

The eagerly awaited store was opened on Thursday last week by the Mayor of Didcot, Cllr Scott Wilgrove.

The store is part of Aldi's general expansion across Oxfordshire and the Home Counties with a number of stores planned for 2015 across the region.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

However residents have taken to social media to voice their thoughts on it's impact towards traffic congestion on Jubilee Way roundabout.

Facebook user Barbie Sim said: "It was obviously going to happen. It was bad enough before, you can't turn right out of it, you have to go left and back round the roundabout now."

Tina Holland, 29, from Ladygrove, said: "I do think it has slightly increased since Aldi opened but I do think the congestion was there before.

'The novelty of Aldi will wear off in a few weeks and everything will ease off."

However, others said that the main cause of traffic is due to Cow Lane Bridge being shut.

Facebook user Julie Harvey said: "I think the Cow Lane closure is causing most of the trouble, it took me an hour to get from Tesco to Brasenose."

Facebook user, Lauren Ann Offers also reiterated this, saying: "Cow lane is the problem! More people are driving because it's a long walk round, meaning even more traffic."

Aldi didn't respond to requests for comment as the Guardian went to press.

Tributes released for Didcot teen motorcyclist

TRIBUTES have been released for the Didcot teenage motorcyclist that was killed after colliding with two vehicles in Frilford, Abingdon on Monday April 13.

Kieran Hughes, 19, was riding on the A415 Abingdon Road on his orange Yamaha motorcycle when it collided with a grey Mini Countryman travelling the same way just before 4.30pm.

The motorcycle subsequently collided with a silver Ford Transit travelling in the opposite direction.

Kieran's sister Kim and father Nigel said in a joint statement: "We would like to express how thankful we are for all the support and kind comments we have had from everybody.

"Kieran was and always will be loved by many, he was always known as the clown of the group, especially due to his cheeky little grin."

Another tribute came on behalf of Kieran's mother, Ann and family friend Richard Fenn, which said: "R.I.P my beautiful young man, forever Peter Pan. You will always be in our thoughts and so close to our hearts.

"God bless you and shine brightly, we love you so very much."

ATM vandalised

FRILFORD: Police are appealing for information after thieves used a crowbar to damage a cash machine at Frilford Service Station.

It happened at around 2.20am on April 17, and because of the damage to the ATM it is not know how much, if any, cash was stolen.

Call 101 with information.

Hotel refurb

FRILFORD HEATH: The Dog House hotel closed for a month on Sunday so that refurbishment work can be carried out at the Faringdon Road site.

Work to upgrade the hotel will see the restaurant, bar and bedroom facilities modernised.

It reopens on May 16.

Leftover cafe

OXFORD: Meals made from ingredients that were destined for the bin are being served up at East Oxford Community Centre on Saturday.

Oxford's Food Surplus Cafe is holding its first 'pay as you feel' event, with the menu made up of meals using unused and leftover foods.

The aim of the cafe is to highlight how much food is thrown away.

It is running from Midday to 4pm at the centre.

Election hopefuls battle it out in Botley hustings

MORE than 300 Botley residents gathered at St Peter's and St Paul's Church on Friday to listen to debates between six election candidates for the Oxford West and Abingdon seat.

The hustings saw Nicola Blackwood (Conservative), Layla Moran (Liberal Democrat), Sally Copley (Labour), Larry Sanders (Green), Mike Foster (Socialist Party of Great Britain) and Helen Salisbury

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

(National Health Action Party) take to the stage.

They spoke with residents about a range of issues affecting Botley in particular, such as the West Way Shopping Centre development and traffic on the A34.

And following the debate, the Guardian asked each of the candidates how they would improve the lives of constituents in Oxford West and Abingdon.

Nicola Blackwood said: "Over the last five years, we've really had one guiding principle, and that's to just listen to my constituents and do whatever I can to champion their concerns.

"They've told me very clearly that traffic is an absolute nightmare for the whole constituency, so I've fought tooth and nail to get investment for the A34 and hundreds of millions of pounds for junction improvements."

Layla Moran said: "Since I was selected nearly three years ago, the first thing that comes to mind is the terrible state of our planning system.

"People are looking for a proactive MP who gets stuck in at the earliest opportunity to solve those problems and also makes sure the infrastructure goes with it."

Sally Copley said: "There's a real choice at this election and the Labour Party's values are really strong, saying that we are the party that will stand up for ordinary working people.

"That means helping people with their fuel bills by freezing energy bills, and making sure people earn a decent wage."

Larry Sanders said: "If we elect any of the major parties we will not have a good NHS because all their plans are based on underfunding, privatisation and fragmentation.

"If we taxed the very rich and understood the debt that we've got is not a disaster, it's normal, we could have a decent country."

Mike Foster said: "The whole structure of society works against most people, and MPs can't change the basic way society is put together.

"The Socialist Party believes in a different society of common ownership of resources and industry services, where those services can be run in the interests of everyone."

And Helen Salisbury said: "I will improve the lives of the constituents of Oxford West and Abingdon by protecting our National Health Service.

"At the moment it is on the brink of collapse, it has been brought here by funding cuts which have squeezed it to the extent that it is almost incapable of providing the care that we need."

At the last election, Oxford West and Abingdon saw the seventh closest result in the country, as Nicola Blackwood won by 179 votes from former Liberal Dmocrat MP Evan Harris.

The election is being held on May 7. Ukip's Alan Harris is also standing for the seat.

Charity tulip

OXFORD: An Oxford-based charity will be represented at the Malvern RHS Spring Festival in May with a unique tulip which was designed especially for them.

UCARE adopted a triumph form tulip as their symbol last year and the specially designed tulip will feature in TV presenter Kate Durr's garden and has been supplied by internationally renowned, Taylors Bulbs.

Verge cuts

OXON: Grass verges across the county will now only be cut twice a year following budget cuts, the county council has announced.

Sue Scane, director for environment and economy at the council, said: "We appreciate that this is not welcome news for residents but with budgets becoming tighter, we had to look at the best place to spend limited resources."

Car stolen

BOTLEY: A green Land Rover Defender was stolen from outside a house in Tilbury Lane on Monday.

Thieves stole the car at around 9pm.

Police are appealing for witnesses to call them on the non-emergency number 101.

Wizarding world brought to life

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

HUNDREDS of Harry Potter fans brought JK Rowling's books to life as Oxford played host to the European Quidditch Cup.

A total of 32 teams from across the continent battled on makeshift broomsticks to fight for the quaffle at Horspath Athletics and Sports Ground on Saturday and Sunday.

Among them were two Oxford squads – Oxford University Quidditch Club's 1st team, called the Radcliffe Chimeras, and their 2nd team, called the Oxford Quidlings.

Quidlings Captain Jack Lennard said: "It was an amazing experience, all these people know each other through the Quidditch community so to have them all in one place made it such a special atmosphere."

The game, which is based on the sport from the magical Harry Potter fiction book series, sees players mix elements of rugby, dodgeball and lacrosse to score the most points.

When a player manages to throw a quaffle through one of three hoops at their end of the pitch the team scores 10 points, and when a team catches the snitch – a small ball attached to a person who runs onto the pitch – they get 30 points and the game ends.

• The Paris Titans, who won the European Quidditch Cup

Meanwhile players can throw balls called 'bludgers' at their rivals in the style of dodgeball and if they hit, the opposition has to run to the hoops at their end of the pitch before they are allowed back into the game.

Players have to run with broomsticks between their legs.

It was France that claimed the overall victory out of the 11 European countries represented.

The Paris Titans sought out the snitch first to claim the winners cup in a hard-fought 150-80 final against Oxford's Radcliffe Chimeras.

The Oxford Quidlings, the only 2nd team side in the tournament, came out 20th overall.

Oxford Quidlings player David Dlaka said: "The atmosphere was electric, overall it's very friendly and positive here, its been an absolute pleasure to be here both in winning and in losing."

Simon Belden, from Newcastle, added: "I came with a group of friends and I couldn't really miss an opportunity to watch a bunch of people running round with broomsticks between their legs".

Quidditch was founded in 2005 by American students taken off across the world.

260th protest at Campsfield House centre

A DEMONSTRATION to protest against the Campsfield House immigration detention centre near Kidlington will take place this Saturday for the 260th time.

Campaign to Close Campsfield has called for public support as they aim to make 'cheerful noise' outside Campsfield House, in what has become a regular occasion on every last Saturday of the month for 21 years.

It comes as Kidlington parish council voted last month that the centre should close.

The vote followed the government's withdrawal of its planning application to Cherwell Council to double the centre's size.

The committee stated that the detention centre does not accord with the UNHCR guidelines on the use of detention only as a last resort, instead, using it as a deterrent for refuge seekers.

They highlight that the area Campsfield House occupies could meet local housing and employment needs.

Campaign spokesperson Bill MacKeith said: "We will keep going until the centre and all other immigration detention centres like it close."

Campsfield House declined to comment ahead of this weekend's protest.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truthis that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Messiest pet

BICESTER: A Labrador from Bicester has been declared one of the nation's messiest pets.

ToppsTiles.co.uk listed White Labrador Janey, who lives with owner Elaine Stokes, as the fifth messiest pet in a competition on their website.

Elaine said: "I was thrilled that Janey was chosen. She can get away with it as she is nearly three and still acts like a puppy."

The caption sent in with the picture read 'Two-year-old white Lab Janey is desperately trying to be a chocolate Lab!"

Jobs boost

SOUTH OXON: Henley MP John Howell has welcomed falling unemployment figures in the constituency, with the number of unemployed now dropping to 259.

There are also 607 fewer people in the constituency claiming job seeker's allowance.

Mr Howell said: "It's excellent news that more families here have the stability and security of a regular pay packet."

Bicester Village to expand by 25%

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

REVISED plans to increase retail space at Bicester Village by a quarter have been given the go ahead by Cherwell District Council's planning committee.

The plans will also increase the number of parking spaces after members of the planning committee approved an updated planning application last Thursday.

The existing Tesco store, petrol station and part of the current outlet centre will be demolished to provide the new retail space and parking.

Bicester Nominees Ltd & Bicester 11 Nominees LTD submitted the updated plans, which were previously approved in July 2014.

The updated plans are now set to include 519 new parking spaces instead of the original 372 that were outlined before.

The expansion will accommodate 28 new units within the 5,191 square metres of additional retail space.

• An artist's impression of the expansion to Bicester Village

The centre's overall size will have increased by 24 per cent and in addition to the parking spaces, various highways improvements will be undertaken to reduce the area's congestion during peak times.

These improvements include the installation of traffic lights at the Pingle Drive roundabout and the creation of two new Eastbound lanes for the A41.

A new Park and Ride facility is also under conditions for approval, which could be in operation by October.

Andy Preston, the council's head of development management, said: "Effectively, this is the same planning application that was approved last year, with the main difference being the area of land along the southern boundary which will allow for the provision of more parking spaces.

"The village attracts millions of visitors from around the world each year so it's important provisions are in place to meet the demand."

Miranda Markham, community relations director at Bicester Village, said: "It will provide a vastly improved visual approach to the town and the new parking spaces will serve to further reduce congestion in the town."

Remembrance service for those who lost babies

A SERVICE for those who have lost a baby during pregnancy, birth or infancy will take place this Saturday at Oxford's Christ Church Cathedral.

Saying Goodbye services are the first national set of specialised remembrance services which aim to remember the lives lost or cut short in a moving and reflective service.

The Oxford service will be the first of over 20 taking place in the UK this year.

The idea came from Zoe and Andy Clark-Coates, both 40, who have personally suffered the loss of five babies.

The services are available for people of all faiths or no faith, are free to attend and feature music, personal stories and poetry.

Andy said: "People come with so many different stories and experiences and the service is designed to help them to accept their grief and we are hopeful at the end that they leave in a more hopeful place."

The first service was in September 2012 and has had attendants from teenagers to 90-year-olds.

The service will begin at 3pm.

More information can be found at sayinggoodbye.org.

Cherwell plays

CHERWELL: Retirement home residents have displayed their memories through moving theatrical performances.

Residents from Sanctuary Housing performed at 'memory exchange' events in March and April after taking inspiration from objects that had a special meaning in their life.

The performances came from a partnership with Sanctuary, local charity The Patsy Wood Trust and Oxford Concert Party, who led the performances.

Graham Nolan, Sanctuary Housing's head of neighbourhood partnerships, said: "It's lovely to hear the sessions were so successful and that residents were talking about their life-stories long into the day."

Asbestos found

OXFORD: Asbestos was found at Oxford Spires Academy basketball hall last week.

As a result, the court will not be open for use until builders can take correct precautions and fix the issue.

Al Tetteh of Oxford Spires said: "We have found some low grade asbestos. Solutions are being found in the meantime but we don't know the exact timescale."

All matches this weekend have been postponed.

Oxford's rowers battle hard on the road to Rio 2016

OXFORD rowers put themselves into contention for boat places during Olympic qualification year after giving impressive performances in the GB Rowing Team Trials last weekend at Caversham.

The rowers, from Oxford University and Henley's Leander Club, faced adverse conditions on the water.

Leander Club's Katie Greves, 32, who rowed in the women's eight at London 2012, teamed up with 29-year-old Zoe Lee to finish third in the women's pair behind Olympic champions Helen Glover and Heather Stanning.

The duo, who had only been working together for a week and a half, were also runners-up in Saturday's time-trial and impressively won their semi-final on Sunday morning.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"It was nice to see just how far we have come in that time. The target was simply to be best we can be and we put out a really solid marker," said Greves.

Oxford Brookes University Boat Clubs' Olivia Carnegie-Brown, 24, and partner, Rosamund Bradbury, 26, earned themselves a fourth-place finish in the women's pair.

Frances Houghton, 34, from Oxford, recovered well from a sticky start to the weekend to finish a fine third in the women's single scull behind Olympic medallist Katherine Grainger.

And Constantine Louloudis, 23, who captained the Oxford University men's to the Boat Race victory just eight days before, secured a runner-up spot in a world-class men's pair final with Pete Reed, 33.

Louloudis said: "We jumped in the boat on Monday, so we had only seven sessions before racing.

"When you have so little time together, the trajectory is pretty steep but having the semi-finals delayed till Sunday morning gave us a little bit of time to catch up with everyone."

Sir David Tanner, GB Rowing team performance director, said: "We had some outstanding racing today with some fantastic tight finishes.

"Most of our top guns have performed to their best and we have also seen some young talent come through as well."

He continued: "The attitude and discipline of our rowers this weekend has been exceptional and this will be a good base for us to form our boats for the European championships over the next few weeks."

May Day preparations

PREPARATIONS are underway for this year's May Morning celebrations, taking place once again at Magdalen Bridge in Oxford on May 1.

The annual event sees traditional dancing and singing, with the choristers of Magdalen College giving their rendition of the Hymnus Eucharisticus from the Great Tower at 6am.

And Oxford City Council have confirmed that the bridge will again be open to visitors from 3am, after it was closed from 2005 to 2010 to stop people jumping into the River Cherwell.

Peter McQuitty, head of policy, culture and communications at the council, said: "May Morning is a popular traditional celebration and over the last few years we've provided a safe environment in which people can enjoy this event.

"It is always dangerous to enter the river, regardless of the water levels, and you are often unaware of the currents, the river levels, or what lies on the river bed.

"We will continue to support and promote all the activities and events taking place across the city for the people of Oxford to enjoy together."

Other events on the day include Morris Men dancing in Radcliffe Square, Catte Street and Broad Street, as well as many bars and restaurants opening for breakfast across the city centre.

YOUR CHANCE FOR CHANGE IN THE WANTAGE CONSTITUENCY

For Didcot, Faringdon, Shrivenham, Wallingford & Wantage

VOTE UKIP

BELIEVE in BRITAIN

Many people I talk to say that we need change. UKIP is ready to stand up for Britain and I'm ready to stand up for you.

Our communities need investment - not endless house building. There is enough brown-field land in the UK to build 1,500,000 new homes. Let's start there and protect our green spaces.

Our towns and villages are under pressure. The roads are clogged and full of potholes. Our GPs are over-burdened. Too many people cannot get their children into schools of their choice. Local police stations are closing without consultation and without any cost/benefit analysis taking place.

It's time for change, and time to put your concerns first.

Lee Upcraft
UKIP Parliamentary Candidate for the Wantage constituency

PS. Team UKIP are standing in council elections too!

UKIP WILL...

- Put your community first and challenge over-development
- Put £3bn into front line NHS services.
- Invest in local infrastructure and services by scrapping HS2 and reducing foreign aid.
- Treat England fairly. Your taxes must be shared equally with England and Scotland. English MPs to vote on English only affairs.
- Support our armed forces. We will commit 2% of GDP to our defence.
- Control our borders and promote British jobs for British workers.
- End income tax on the minimum wage.
- Give you the right to sack your MP.

See our independently costed manifesto at http://www.ukip.org/manifesto2015

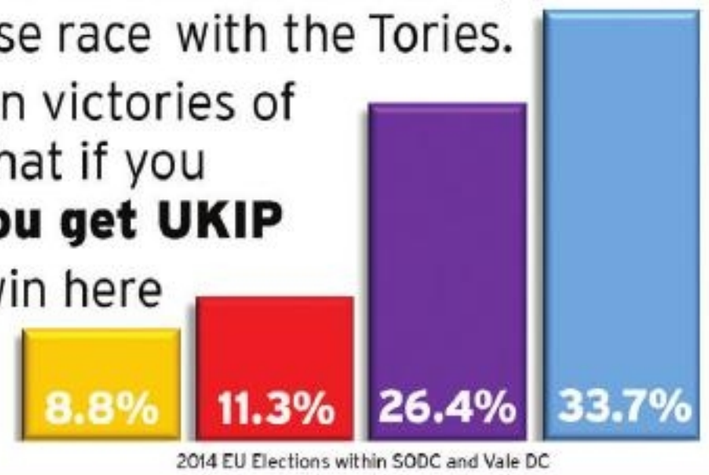
UKIP CAN WIN HERE...

- In the last major election in this area, UKIP ran a close race with the Tories.
- Our by-election victories of 2014 proved that if you vote UKIP, you get UKIP
- Labour can't win here
- Lib-Dems can't win here



2014 EU Elections within SODC and Vale DC

Election candidates revealed

AS well as the general election, Oxfordshire's residents will get the chance to vote in district, town and parish council elections on May 7.

Last week, we brought you the details of all the district council candidates standing for election in Abingdon, Wantage and Grove, as well as those fighting to become Oxfordshire's next MPs.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

To complete the list, below are the candidates in district council elections for the towns of Wallingford and Didcot.

See page 17 for a list of candidates up for election in the Witney and Carterton area of West Oxfordshire District Council.

Vale of White Horse and South Oxfordshire district councils have all of their seats up for grabs – the last elections having taken place in 2011.

Their ward boundaries have been revised for 2015, with the Vale reducing their number of councillors from 51 to 38, and South Oxfordshire going from 48 to 36.

Elsewhere, West Oxfordshire District Council have 17 of their 49 councillors up for election, while Cherwell District Council are electing councillors to 17 of their 50 seats.

No elections for Oxford City Council are taking place this year, with the last having taken place in May 2014.

All four district councils are currently controlled by the Conservative party, with a considerable majority in all but the Vale, where the Liberal Democrats trailed by just seven councillors.

For a full list of district council candidates, and all those standing to become one of Oxfordshire's six MPs in the general election, go to oxfordshireguardian.co.uk.

Book night

OXON: The global World Book Night event comes to Oxfordshire libraries this Friday.

Oxfordshire County Council's libraries will open for residents to collect books for their communities or workplaces.

Events will be held at a number of libraries including Kidlington Library, which will hold an 'adult story time event' on Wednesday from 2pm to 3pm.

Woodcote library will also be open from 7pm to 9pm on the Friday, with authors Sue Palmer and Michael Smith set to attend.

Two charged after Abingdon kidnapping

ABINGDON: Two people have been charged on suspicion of kidnapping a 17-year-old girl in Abingdon on Sunday.

Jason Edmunds, 20, from Banbury and Annie Newton, 18, from Oxford were both charged on Monday in connection with the incident at 7.40pm in Drayton Road.

The victim was forced into a vehicle, threatened with a crowbar and had her mobile phone damaged as she was driven to Oxford against her will.

Edmunds and Newton have been remanded in custody and are due to appear at Oxford Crown Court on May 1.

Volunteers save Bagley Wood toads

VOLUNTEERS joined Oxfordshire County Council and a local toad patrol to scour Bagley Wood to help 51 vulnerable amphibians reach their breeding ground safely.

A seven-strong crew spent two evenings on April 2 and 3 gathering up the toads and transporting them across roads.

The team donned protective clothing and set out road warning signs for volunteers to protect the species in a very hazardous environment.

The volunteers were from Skanska's highways maintenance team who travelled down 400 metres of verge, often next to fast moving traffic, in the darkness.

Richard Lovewell, responsible for Skanska's highways work in Oxfordshire, said: "Once the patrol was brought to our attention, we were more than happy to help.

"It was the perfect way to support a local volunteer group and interesting to learn about ancient toad migration routes."

Bagley Wood's toad patrol is coordinated from Toads on Roads, a nationwide scheme that for 20 years and helped protect almost 77,000 roads across 140 sites last year.

The patrol has rescued 300 Bagley Wood toads this year.

Patrol co-ordinator Lisa Temple said: "Patrolling our toad migration route is hazardous for volunteers and we are very grateful to Skanska and Oxfordshire County Council for their advice and kind donation of high visibility clothing."

It is estimated 20 tonnes of toads are killed each year on UK roads with 8,000 killed last year on manned crossings alone.

Should I have my hearing checked?

Keith Donaghy R.H.A.D., F.S.H.A.A. has the answers.

Just like eyes and teeth, I recommend that hearing is checked regularly probably once a year or certainly if someone thinks that their hearing is diminishing. All hearing tests and consultations are free at Keith Donaghy Hearingcare.

How do I detect a change in my hearing?

It is usually difficult because the deterioration is often gradual, so hearing heeds to be checked regularly by a professional. Friends and relatives may tell you that you are not hearing properly or you may find that the television volume needs to be turned up for you to hear it.

When do I need to use a hearing aid?

If you have a significant loss in your hearing then a new digital hearing aid system will bring your hearing back to as near normal as possible. There are many digital systems available on the market and generally speaking the more sophisticated the system the more expensive it is.

How much do hearing aids cost?

When investing in a hearing aid system you are not just purchasing hearing aids but also the after care package so it is important to consider what the standard of help and advice is available when you start wearing your new hearing aids. At Keith Donaghy Hearingcare prices start from £960.00 for a pair of the latest digital technology hearing aids which includes the initial hearing test, fitting and complete aftercare package. Because Keith Donaghy is local patients rarely wait more than a few days before they can see him.

How long do hearing aids last?

All hearing aids come with a 2 year manufacturers guarantee. Providing that the hearing aids system is cleaned and serviced regularly it could last for 5 or even 8 years. However many people change their system after 3 to 4 years usually because they want to use the latest technology available.

Competition

WIN tickets to Gypsy in London's West End

Don't miss Gypsy, one of the greatest ever Broadway musicals, as it transfers to the West End following its sell-out, rapturously acclaimed five-star run at Chichester Festival Theatre.

Imelda Staunton delivers a "knock-out performance" (The Independent) as Momma Rose in Jonathan Kent's "dazzling revival" (Mail on Sunday), alongside Lara Pulver, who reprises her "stunning" (The Independent) role as Louise. They are joined by Peter Davison as Herb, in this gloriously entertaining musical fable that features "showstopping" (Mail on Sunday) choreography from Stephen Mear.

Based on the true life memoirs of legendary burlesque entertainer, Gypsy Rose Lee, it tells the tale of Momma Rose and her two daughters, Baby June and Louise, trekking across America in their family vaudeville act. But times are changing, audiences are expecting more, and the two girls have their own ambitions in mind. The rise of burlesque is upon them, and nothing will ever be the same again for Momma Rose.

Closing date:
Friday, May 1, 2015

With lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, book by Arthur Laurents and music by Jule Styne, this moving and "scintillating" (The Times) production of Gypsy is the first to be seen in London for 40 years.

For more information and for the best seats with no booking fees visit www.gypsythemusical.uk

We have 2 pairs of tickets to this fantastic show and to be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer this simple question.

Q: Who wrote the lyrics for the musical Gypsy?

Get your leotards, spandex and capes on for the Oxford Moonlight Stroll!

ON 11th July the Sobell House Hospice are inviting supporters to don their superhero capes and tight-fitting outfits, at the Oxford Moonlight Stroll.

The event is hoping to attract 1,000 people to put on their walking shoes for its annual Moonlight Stroll through the streets of Oxford in support of the work of the Hospice at the Churchill Hospital in Headington.

So far, the sponsored walk is close to raising £750,000 for the work of the Sobell House Hospice which provides not only palliative care for terminally ill patients but support to their family, friends and carers.

This year is the ninth year that the Charity has staged the event which takes place on July 11th. Walkers are invited to take a leisurely 9 mile stroll round Oxford starting at St Edwards School following a route which is top secret and offers a different perspective on the city, and the opportunity for some of the walkers to see a few things they may not have seen before!

The Moonlight Stroll is a key event organised by the hospice charity which hopes it will raise £100,000 this year alone. Sobell House is calling for everyone to take part!

It is a non-competitive event and suitable for all abilities - the stroll takes place between the hours of 10.30pm and 2am.

To sign up call: 01865 857007 or visit www.oxfordmoonlightstroll.org

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

One killer comedian

STAND-UP comedian Andrew Lawrence pledged his 'Reasons to Kill Yourself' show will provide a boost to those feeling low about life.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

His tour will be at The Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot this Saturday, April 25.

"This is a show for anyone who's lost all their enthusiasm for life and yet gets on with it anyway, despite not being entirely sure why," he told the Guardian.

"It's a miserable show for miserable people - but even for people who aren't miserable, it can still provide an evening of laughter, because there's a load of great jokes in it."

The 35-year-old started his comedy career as a student at the University of St Andrews.

"This summer I will be performing my 10th show in consecutive years at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival," he added.

"It is truly a hideous event, where I am fairly sure I have met over the years some of the most horrendous people ever to have walked the face of the earth.

"However, I've got an audience there now, so I go back every year for the money.

"Also, I'm taking my dog this time so I think I'll manage to get through it without needing counselling after."

Not one afraid to express his opinions, the comic has also been known to discuss controversial topics, leading to Twitter debates with fellow comedians.

"I just say what I think is going to make people laugh - I don't consider my material from a moral perspective as I think that's a job for audiences and critics, not for me," he said.

The show - at 8pm - is suitable for over 16s and costs £13.50 to £15.

Little Red Riding Hood

FAMILIES in Oxford will be glad to hear that a fresh twist on the well-loved tale of Little Red Riding Hood will be the Oxford Playhouse this Saturday, April 25.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Performed by the Norwich Puppet Theatre Company, the audience will see Red Riding Hood make her way to her grandmother's house through a forest filled with howling wolves.

After bumping into one of the animals, the youngster has to use her wits against the hungry wolf.

"Expect the unexpected as the story has some surprise twists," director Joy Haynes told the Guardian.

"Little Red is much more proactive and feisty in this version of the story and finds a very funny way to outwit the wolf.

"There are over 18 puppets used in the show and a host of great songs."

First written by French author Charles Perrault in 1697, the famous fairy tale has seen over 100 different adaptations.

"Red Riding Hood will have all the family laughing, whether you're four or 94," Joy added.

"Live theatre gives children the opportunity to be transported into a story, sparking their imaginations.

"It's an experience like no other and puppetry is a great introduction to theatre for young children.

"Also, the show is performed by two amazing puppeteers who are Shane Connolly and Clare Rebekah Pointing, and despite the fact that they are not even hidden when they are on stage, this doesn't spoil the illusion of the puppets coming to life.

"The magical thing about puppet theatre is what ever your age, whether you're a child or an adult, you instinctively suspend your disbelief and the puppet turns into a breathing, living character before your eyes."

Tickets cost from £6 to £8 and the two shows, suitable for over fours, start at 11am and 2pm.

Simple Minds

SCOTTISH rock band Simple Minds will be performing at The New Theatre Oxford this Sunday, April 26.

Formed in 1977, the group went on to record three number one albums in the charts.

Tickets cost from £44.40 to £54.40 with the show starting at 8pm.

Jazz Sundays

JAZZ quintet Flekd will be at The Oxford Wine Café this Sunday, April 26.

The five friends who between them can play the double bass, flute, accordion, piano, guitar and percussion will be at the South Parade venue as part of their tour around the UK.

The free event starts at 6.30pm and finishes at 9pm.

Frank Iero

AMERICAN musician Frank Iero will be at Oxford's O2 Academy tomorrow evening, Friday, April 24.

The guitarist, who was a member of the popular group My Chemical Romance, will be at the Cowley Road theatre with his solo project, 'Frnkiero Andthe Cellabration'.

Tickets for this event have now sold out.

Penelope: the waiting game

IT is a bold take on Homer's mythical Odyssey, told from the point of view of the Greek hero's wife.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

And solo show 'Penelope RETOLD' will be at the Oxford Playhouse tonight and tomorrow, April 23 and 24.

The epic poem - one of the oldest surviving works of Western literature - usually focuses on Odysseus and his 10-year journey home after the Trojan war.

"We meet Penelope stuck in an endless waiting game," writer-performer Caroline Horton told the Guardian.

"Her husband Odysseus is a great war hero and having once returned from Troy after 20 years, he immediately left again.

"So Penelope is still there, on their bed, on his rocky island of Ithaca trying to decide what to do and how to feel.

"This is a show where there's a very direct and playful relationship with the audience so they are right there with her."

Caroline created the show after the idea was suggested by an artistic director of a show at a theatre in Derby.

After graduating with a degree in English Literature from Cambridge University, the 33-year-old went on to write and star in stage and radio plays over the UK and beyond, as well as running workshops about drama.

And Caroline's work has not gone unnoticed.

The Birmingham-based performer was nominated for the 'Outstanding Achievement in the Affiliate Theatre' category at the 2013 Olivier Awards for her 2010 play, 'You're Not Like The Other Girls Chrissy'.

"I was stunned and delighted about the nomination," Caroline said.

"Also, I am very much looking forward to being back to the Oxford Playhouse - I performed my first show 'You're Not Like The Other Girls Chrissy' there in 2011 and since then, I was an artist in residence on the Evolve scheme so I spent a lot of time in the building generally."

Three shows place over the two days, on Thursday at 7.30pm, and on Friday at 6pm and 8.30pm.

It is suitable for over 13s.

Tickets cost £8 to £10.

Compere

Pam Ford is lively and outrageous, juggling both glamorous and bawdy material that would make a sailor blush. Pam is a regular Compere & host for Charity events & fund raisers.

"Pam Ford is great. Book her and stand back for the tsunami of energy that bursts forth from her. Funny, engaging, likeable and, oh yeah very funny too. With great legs too!" – The Gag Factory

Matt Richardson started doing stand-up in November 2009 aged 18. After gigging really hard for about 18 months he quit University and a job in a lettings office to become the youngest professional comedian working in the UK at 20.

"This (extremely) young stand-up is set to become the next bright, young sensation on the circuit, expect to hear a lot more of him"– The Guardian

Eshaan Akbar

Lucas Jolson

George Egg Wildly brandishing the worlds' second largest briefcase containing a battery of ridiculous props, George bounds onto the stage to perform one of the most original, interesting, innovative, and sweetly whimsical comedy performances you are ever likely to see. A true cross between alternative stand-up comedy and music hall variety. George Egg has been a professional stand-up comedian, actor and writer for the last ten years. He has an extremely successful solo show with which he has toured Europe and of course extensively in the UK, both on the stage and on the television.

"A hugely entertaining variety turn"– The Guardian

TRY ORIENTEERING AT UNIVERSITY PARKS
"If you fancy a new outdoor activity for all the family, why not give orienteering a go. This event is organised by Thames Valley Orienteering Club and it's ideal for families and children.
There will be several courses and plenty of help on hand for new-comers. There will be six courses to choose from, from 1km up to 5km, taking around 30-75 mins to complete, plus a special string course for very young children, where they follow a line of string to find fun characters.
If you've never tried orienteering before, it's a bit like a treasure hunt to find a series of checkpoints around your chosen course. They're marked by flags on the ground and you register each one with an electronic timing chip to record your progress, and prove you've been to them! The challenge arises by there being no set route between the checkpoints and you have to choose your own way, using a detailed orienteering map of the park.
It's great fun and the events are supported by Oxford City Council and Up and Running in Oxford, who have supplied some great prizes. Come along any time between 10.00am to 11.30am and don't forget your sense of adventure! The cost is £6 per family group, or £2 for solo juniors.

Viva ready for the roads

REVIEW: Vauxhall Viva

By James Richings

THE new Vauxhall Viva now has a price tag.

The English car manufacturer's five-door entry-level model Viva will arrive in showrooms priced from £7,995 on-the-road.

The latest Viva range has two trim levels; SE and SL, which are carried over from the original Vauxhall Viva.

There will also be Air Con and ecoFLEX versions of the SE trim, giving customers a choice of four models.

Tim Tozer, Vauxhall's chairman and managing director, said: "Short, crisp and full of character, Vauxhall's new entry-level model is a proper small car and will hold great appeal in this rapidly growing sector.

"In showrooms this summer priced from £7,995 on-the-road, VIVA joins new Corsa and ADAM in a compelling small car portfolio, giving Vauxhall an unrivalled position in the small car market."

Both Viva trim levels feature a tyre pressure monitoring system, city mode steering, lane departure warning, cruise control with speed limiter and front fog lights with cornering function as standard features on the car.

Its Electronic Stability Program will also have various features such as traction control, cornering brake control, emergency brake assist, straight line stability control and hill start assist.

All models also include six airbags, AM/FM radio with aux-in and steering wheel controls, electric front windows, electric/heated mirrors and remote central door locking.

It manages 65.7mpg combined and 99g/km, and the Viva SE ecoFLEX gets a front lip spoiler, extended rear spoiler with LED brake lights and ultra-low rolling resistance tyres over the entry model which will be priced from £8,170 on-the-road.

Priced from £9,495 on-the-road, SL trim has electronic climate control, Morocanna seat trim, leather steering wheel and 15-inch alloy wheels.

Other highlights include six speakers, USB audio connection, Bluetooth music streaming and mobile phone portal.

Extra options are available.

P&G · Gillette

Gillette Research & Development

Precision Engineer Role, Reading UK

Concept Prototyping Group is responsible for partnering on the development of early stage product prototypes and bespoke scientific research equipment.

We have an exciting role working closely with Design Engineering and Scientist colleagues on varied projects within a portfolio that supports the innovation pipeline for the business.

In the role you will be largely workshop based, where you will execute component and assembly manufacturing ranging from one-offs to small batch sizes. Also you will partner with colleagues to develop ideas and translate design concepts into manufacturable solutions.

In order to do this, you will have the ability to work both with and without drawings, be CAD/CAM literate and have extensive skills on a range of machine tools and diverse machining processes. CNC programming experience is also essential. Ideally experience from a tool making, instrument making or model making background with comprehensive Apprenticeship foundations is desired.

In addition to your practical skills and aptitude, you will also need to have excellent communication skills to build effective working relationships with colleagues around the business. We expect you to be able to work independently to put forward your own ideas and to manage your own design projects.

As well as competitive salaries, the organisation offers substantial scope for personal growth and development and a class leading and flexible benefits package including; defined contribution pension scheme with life assurance, share ownership scheme, private healthcare, and an annual leave entitlement of 24 days

Attractive Compensation and Benefits – please enquire for further details

United knock lowly Tranmere for three

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THE U's kept Tranmere rooted to the foot of the Sky Bet League Two table in a crushing 3-0 victory at Prenton Park on Saturday.

Michael Appleton's men rose to 15th in the table after a brace from West Brom loanee, Kemar Roofe and a goal from winger Danny Rose, all in the second half.

Rovers simply couldn't get going against a resolute Oxford side that kept possession well as they look to end the season in fine form.

The result means that United remain unbeaten in their last six matches heading into their final home game of the season against Cambridge United on Saturday.

More than 5,700 fans turned up for a 'must not lose' game for Tranmere.

Rovers' Max Power tested United keeper, Jamie Ashdown, only making his second senior start, in the first minute with a curling effort.

Rovers' Jennison Myrie-Williams had the best effort of the first half after breaking into the box but dragged his left foot shot wide across goal.

The attempt woke United up and Rovers' keeper, Owain Fon Williams, was called into action twice at the end of the half with Roofe shooting wide from a fast-paced counter-attack and midfielder Alex MacDonald also forced a smart save.

The opening 45 minutes ended in a goalmouth scramble in Ashdown's box but Oxford safely saw it out.

From the whistle, The U's took charge in the second half, and just after a deflected Danny Hylton shot, an unmarked Roofe planted in the opener from a whipped Chris Long cross in the 51st minute.

And just two minutes later, United broke into the box and Hylton, criminally unmarked, played in Rose for his second of the season.

• West Brom loanee Kemar Roofe scored twice for United (picture by Steve Daniels)

The goal sparked a chorus of boos in a tense atmosphere, and Rovers couldn't work their way into a goal-scoring position.

After 68 minutes, United wrapped the game up with a silky team move as Hylton nodded a cross to Roofe, who volleyed from an awkward angle.

The game teetered out and it was joy for United but despair for Rovers who remain bottom but two points from safety with two games to go.

Welsh target improvement versus Tigers

LONDON Welsh look to continue their streak of improving performances as they head to the Leicester Tigers this Saturday afternoon.

However, the difficult task of stifling the Tigers will come with the added concern that the home side have only been defeated once in their last 13 home games at Welford Road.

That home defeat came with a narrow defeat to 22-19 defeat to London Irish back in September last year, but Welsh could argue they have nothing to lose as they are set to play their 20th Premiership game without adding to their solitary point.

The Welsh have on average conceded in excess of 46 points per game over the league season, with Newcastle Falcons and London Irish being the only sides not to tally a try bonus point against the Exiles.

The chance to grab a win at Leicester would be a historic triumph as the last Welsh win over Leicester came nearly 22 years ago in a 9-6 victory.

The last three meetings between the two have all resulted in Tigers wins, with November's meeting resulting in a 26-5 scoreline.

Magic Barcelos strike earns City super victory

A STUNNING last minute overhead kick goal gave Oxford City a vital three points as they ran out 2-1 winners in an enthralling match against Gainsborough Trinity.

Oxford grabbed the winner through substitute Felipe Barcelos who did the seemingly impossible and scissor-kicked the ball past the Trinity keeper, despite handball calls.

City had been trailing for nearly three quarters of the game before they found an equaliser through Darren Pond, who cancelled out Simon Russell's first half goal.

The result means Oxford maintain their sixth position in the Vanarama Conference North as they prepare to face Guiseley, in fifth, at Marsh Lane for the final game of this season on Saturday.

City started the match with a purpose and attacked well down the right wing through Luke Coulson.

Trinity got their noses in front through a fine team move as Steve Brogan had his shot blocked on the line and Russell stepped up to power the ball past Oxford keeper Salva De La Cruz.

Half-time came without much goalmouth action before Trinity came bursting out of the blocks in the second half with Brogan and Russell going close.

Oxford finally found their golden chance after a quick break resulted in Pond firing from five yards out.

The winner came from a corner into a flooded penalty box, including De La Cruz, which fell to Barcelos, whose ingenuity grabbed City the vital win.

Former England fly half recommits to Welsh

FORMER England fly half Olly Barkley has become the latest London Welsh player to recommit by agreeing a contract extension.

The 33-year-old, capped 23 times by England, joined Welsh in 2014 and has made 21 appearances for the club, scoring 40 points.

Barkley is third in the Premiership's all-time points scoring list, with 1,605 points from 193 Premiership appearances, and made his debut with Bath in 2001.

Barkley, who made his name at Bath, has also become prolific on the European stage, racking up a grand total of 747 points from 83 appearances.

Barkley said after the announcement: "It's not been an easy year but I'm committed to seeing my journey with London Welsh through and repay the great support we've received.

"I'm also excited by having a bigger role in developing certain areas of our game, it will be a new challenge but I'm going to do all I can to make sure it's a success."

Steve Lewis, Welsh's director of rugby, said: "This is a massive statement by the club with regard to next season."

North Leigh strut to victory

NORTH Leigh sauntered to an easy 1-0 win in their last home game of the season against Southampton-based side Sholing FC at Eynsham Park.

Winger Michael Hopkins delivered a peach of a free-kick past Sholing keeper Matt Brown on the hour mark in a match where end of season fatigue played its part in the drop of quality on display.

Leigh had completely dominated Sholing up until the goal but once they'd gone behind, the visitors came to life and very easily could have grabbed an equaliser in the dying minutes with captain Barry Mason powering over the bar from close range.

It was a well-deserved win for North Leigh who travel down to Somerset to face Clevedon Town FC for the final game of the season as they aim for a top-10 finish in the Evo-stik Southern League Division One & West.

Elsewhere, Wantage Town failed to capitalise on the news that they are staying up as they couldn't hold off Wimborne Town in a 1-0 defeat at the final home game of the season at Alfredian Park.

A last minute back post header from Mark Gamble won the game for Wimborne, a timely reward for the visitors who totally dominated a resilient Wantage side.

Wantage had few opportunities over the course of the game to test the Magpies but could have found an equaliser in injury time if it wasn't for Billy Maybury's goal-line clearance.

The Freds now look to end their season with a trip to fourth-placed Taunton Town as they bid to end their season on a high.

Smith scores consecutive top-six finishes

MONSTER Yamaha Tech 3's Bradley Smith kept the momentum of his strong start to the season going with a sixth place finish in Argentina at round three of the MotoGP World Championship.

The Oxford rider moved up from 10th on the grid and under a baking sun held his qualifying position from the off before gliding through the field to claim a top result from an unlikely position.

With 15 laps remaining, Smith dived inside Aleix Espargaro to move into seventh before greeting the chequered flag with a solid all-round performance, in what was his second sixth-place finish in a row.

Fellow Tech3 rider, Spaniard Pol Espargaro, came home eighth in the challenging race after starting from 18th on the grid.

Smith said after the race: "I am really happy about taking home this position as it is far better than we expected.

"I will gladly take this result as it confirms my third consistent race finish in the top eight"

The next race is at Jerez, Spain, on May 3.

89th BTCC victory for Plato as BMR thrive in Donington

OXFORD'S Jason Plato secured his 89th BTCC victory to ensure Team BMR continue their strong form in the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) at Donington Park.

Double champion Plato's victory came in the first of his three races in his VW, whilst defending champion and teammate Colin Turkington finished third with Honda's Gordon Shedden in second.

The second race proved to be less fruitful for Plato as he had to settle for a fifth place finish whilst Turkington took the top step of the podium.

The third race saw both drivers drop down the grid with Plato finishing eighth and Turkington 11th, but Team BMR continue to lead the team's standings, ahead of Honda Yuasa Racing.

Plato, 47, is fifth in the driver's standings as a result.

Plato said after the race: "It was a great weekend for me, a great weekend for the team but I think it should have been three wins with Aron Smith joining us.

"We're in good shape honestly. "The cars are fast and the team is working well together, I'm pleased."

The championship will resume at Thruxton on Saturday May 9.

Ardley end season with effective win

ARDLEY United wrapped up their league season with a 1-0 win over Highworth Town to join level with them on points and finish eighth in Uhlsport Hellenic Premier Division.

Kieran Scott delivered the game's only goal on Tuesday night as end of season exhaustion was evidently on display.

Scott's goal for Kevin Brock's team came 10 minutes after the restart, when Scott was slipped in from Luke Ingram to drive it into the far corner.

Ardley kept possession of the ball well through out the game and end the season on a high as heads now turn to their Challenge Cup final against Ascot United on May 4.

Meanwhile, in Division One East, Henley Town fell to a 4-0 defeat to Wokingham and Emmbrook at the Triangle Mill against the newly crowned champions.

It was an odd game for Henley who played as the away team against the side that they share the ground with.

Town manager Craig Sumner had nine players out with injuries and only just managed to field 11 players on the pitch.

Wokingham split their four goals equally with two in each half to win the division by a nine-point margin.

Elsewhere in the division, Headington Amateurs played out an entertaining 3-3 draw with Woodley Town as they wrapped up their league season with an 11th-place finish.

Whilst North Leigh United prevailed against Binfield as they won the Floodlit Cup in a 2-0 win in front of 158 ecstatic supporters in what was an all-round perfect performance.

Lewis White gave United the winning goal with after a great delivery into the box from Alife Saunders with 28 minutes on the clock.

Cricket club VAT bill

CRICKET: Eynsham Cricket Club have been hit with a £34,000 VAT bill from HMRC regarding a new pavilion.

The club at Cassington Road had its pavilion destroyed in a blaze back in 2012 but had to tell contractors to not begin work due to the VAT bill in January this year.

The club are unable to afford the bill and anyone willing to donate to the club to help pay the bill off can do so by calling chairman Ian Miller on 01865 880759.

Pepperell ends off the pace

GOLF: Abingdon golfer Eddie Pepperell finished 19 shots off the pace in China's Shenzhen International.

The golfer's final day total tallied up to 295 after Pepperell hit a nine on the final hole on his third-round 74 and shot a four-over-par 76 on the final day.

Kiradech Aphibarnrat of Thailand won the title after a play-off with China's Li Hao-Tong.

Pepperell starts the Volvo China Open in Shanghai today.

Third U's defeat

FOOTBALL: Oxford United Women fell to a third successive defeat in a 2-0 loss to Aston Villa Ladies at Northcourt Road on Sunday.

United's Lauren Allison missed a 90th minute penalty as Villa pounced either side of half-time with goals from Jade Richards and Olivia Fergusson to claim the win.

Oxford remain eighth in the table in FA Women's Super League 2.

DIDDY STRIVE TO FINISH SEASON WITH WIN AFTER TOUGH SWINDON DEFEAT

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon has hailed his club's style of football and is confident they can maintain their top half status heading into the season's final game.

The Diddy suffered a second consecutive loss in the Southern League Division One South & West in a 1-0 defeat to Swindon Supermarine.

Concannon's side was unable to break down a resolute Swindon defence and the Railwaymen now face a battle to hold onto their seventh-place position.

Supermarine's solitary goal proved to be the difference between the two sides in Wiltshire in Town's penultimate league game.

John Mills had an early opportunity to give Diddy the lead but ex-Didcot keeper Sam Warrell kept things goalless.

But Supermarine's Josh Morse picked up on a defensive error to slot home just after 11 minutes.

Town's Jack Self tested Warrell with an effort but Didcot should have equalised when Luke Carnell's shot beat the goalkeeper, but slammed against the crossbar.

The second half proved to be fruitless for Diddy who despite upping the tempo, could not force the ball past Warrell.

The game also came with another blow for Didcot as joint-manager, Jamie Heapy, playing his 848th game for the club, came off with a suspected hamstring injury.

The injury could rule Heapy out for the rest of the season and his testimonial in three weeks' time.

Ian Concannon said after the game: "Despite us playing a lot of good football, we could never penetrate their back line.

"On another day, we could have scored more as we were definitely the dominant team in the second half."

"I think a draw would have been a fair result."

Didcot now turn their attentions to Wimborne Town for their final game of the season in a end-of-season tussle in Dorset on Saturday.

Concannon banged the drum ahead of the game as he said: "We are a good footballing team and can be a match for everybody.

"We are going there to win."
